

The Many Faces of Being Old. Health and Socio-cultural Aspects of Ageing

Edited by Michał Musielak

Poznań University of Medical Sciences

Poznań 2006

CONTENTS

Foreword	7
PSYCHO-MEDICAL PERSPECTIVES ON OLD AGE	9
Katarzyna Wieczorowska-Tobis What Does it Mean "To Be Old"?	11
Agnieszka Rajska-Neumann Compliance with Physician's Recommendations by Old Patients and the Safety of Pharmacological Treatment	17
Anna Suchańska Age, Self-awareness and Attitude Towards Suffering	21
Krzysztof Rosa, Dorota Merez Suicidal Behaviors in the Elderly	35
Dorota Hędzerek The Value of Looking Back: Reminiscence Approach in Psychotherapy with Depressed Elderly Patients	51
Ewa Baum Seniors as Beneficiaries of Stem Cells Therapy	57
SOCIO-CULTURAL AND ETHICAL ASPECTS OF ELDERLY LIFE	63
Michał Musielak Attitudes Towards Old Age Across the Ages	65
Stanisław Antczak Population Aging in Europe, Causes and Effects	73
Natalia Markwitz The Attitude of the Polish Society and Family Towards Elderly People	79
Adam Czabański, Justyna Szkarłat The Chosen Aspects of Social Functioning of Centenarians	83
Jan Domaradzki How Do the Elderly Rationalize Their Ambivalent Attitude Towards Health	91
Liliana Rogozea Ethics, Medicine and the Life of Elderly People	105

SENIOR CARE SOLUTIONS – PROJECTS, INNOVATIONS
AND CHALLENGES 113

Ewelina Wierzejska, Joanna Wiczorek, Jacek Wysocki
Psychological Health Promotion of the Elderly 115

Hans Inge Saevareid
New Approaches in Community Care for the Elderly. Results from the CARMA Project 125

Katainen Irmeli, Aila Pikkarainen, Eila Latvala
New Challenges and Innovations in Elderly Care in Finland 143

Asta Suomi, Aarno Lehmusto
Preventive Work with Elderly: Empowerment Approach 153